

SOUTH ARTS SCHOOLHOUSE ART CLASSES – FALL 2024

We are excited about our fall Schoolhouse class lineup. If you have questions or are interested in teaching a class, please contact Tony Verne (vernepetportraits@gmail.com) or Dianne Polome (dpolome@gmail.com). All instruction will take place in the Co-op room of the Schoolhouse Arts & History Center, 2600 South Park Road in Bethel Park (unless noted otherwise).

Portrait Painting with Wendy Mackin

Afraid of portraits? This workshop by popular instructor Wendy Mackin will help to take the mystery out of painting faces, and we will have fun doing so. In this two-day workshop, we will work with proportions of the face, structural planes, value, color relationships, and brushwork.

Wendy paints mostly in oils, also working with pastel and charcoal. She really enjoys teaching others to paint and is committed to always learning. In teaching, Wendy’s focus is on composition, color, and technique. Six student minimum. Suggested supply list available on registration.

Wednesday, October 2 & 9, 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM (bring a lunch)

REGISTER BY September 25: Members $35/session; $65/both (non-members $40/session; $75/both)

Procreate for iPad Workshop with Diane Murray

Diane Murray is a prolific South Hills artist/member with much experience to offer. She will guide us through using Procreate to prep our photos for painting. You’ll learn how to combine elements of several photos into one paintable scene, as well as how to eliminate distracting elements, adjust color and value, etc. You will need an iPad with the Procreate app loaded and an Apple pen. Instructions will be shared upon registration. Six student minimum.
